

SurrogacyUK
Application form for Full Membership:
Male Same Sex Intended Parents.

A very warm welcome to SurrogacyUK. Thank you for requesting the application form to join the organisation as Full Members.

The questions on the form serve several purposes.

First, we need to obtain some basic information about you as a couple for our records.

Second, we need to ensure that you have had the necessary tests and checks required for surrogacy: these vary according to whether you are considering host surrogacy, straight surrogacy, or both. Many of these are not a requirement for membership with us, but should be considered.

Finally we ask some questions about your hopes and expectations for surrogacy. Don't worry if you have not reached definitive answers to these questions. We include them here so you can start thinking about these issues together, and you can discuss them further at your face-to-face SurrogacyUK Membership Advisory Session.

We do ask you to fill the form in as accurately as possible. We hope you understand that if you are found to have deliberately withheld information, or have given false information, we may cancel your membership. In this case a refund of your membership fee will not be possible.

If you feel there is not enough space in this form to provide the answer you would like to give to a question, please just number it and provide your answer on a separate sheet.

Please Note: SUK's policy now requires BOTH parents to be living together in the UK, and not just domiciled. Your supporting paperwork should demonstrate this.

You should return your completed application form to our IP Applications Manager using one of the following and please contact us should you have any questions:

Section 7: Straight Surrogacy

Please complete the following section only if you are considering straight surrogacy. Various options for fathering a child are available for male same-sex couples in straight surrogacy. You should consider the following points:

Inseminations:

- It is believed that inseminating with semen from two fathers in the same monthly cycle can decrease the chances of conception. So if you would both consider being the biological father, you may each opt to try inseminations on alternate months
- Alternatively you may decide that only one of you will be the biological father
- If you chose to do your inseminations at an IVF clinic, you will have to fulfil their requirements for the use of quarantined semen (see section on Host Surrogacy for details)

Semen analysis:

- Only the father intending to be a biological parent needs to have semen analysis
- Some GPs are willing and able to arrange this on the NHS; others will suggest you use a private IVF clinic.

Sexual health checks:

- For straight surrogacy, the Member planning to be the biological father will need an STI screen prior to joining, and again prior to starting inseminations.
- If both of you are considering being biological fathers, you will both need STI tests prior to joining
- If only one of you is planning to undertake inseminations, it may still be necessary for the other Intended Father to have an STI screen prior to inseminations. This is something that IPs discuss with their surrogate at the agreement session.
- The tests required are listed in the checklist at the back of this application form.

There are various other tests that you may wish to consider which are optional and have been listed below.

a) Intended Father 1

Are you considering being the biological father? Yes / No

If No, go to b) Intended Father 2

Have you had a Cystic Fibrosis carrier test? Yes / No

This is a common and serious genetic disorder, and 1 in 25 people in the UK are carriers. If both you and the biological mother are carriers, there is a 1 in 4 chance of the child being affected.

Have you had a Tay Sachs carrier test (people of Jewish heritage only)? Yes / No / N/a

Have you had a Beta-Thalassaemia carrier test (people of African, Caribbean, Middle-Eastern, and Mediterranean heritage only)? Yes / No / N/a

Have you had a Sickle Cell carrier test (people of African, Caribbean, Middle-Eastern, and Mediterranean heritage only)? Yes / No / N/a

Have you had a Cytomegalovirus (CMV) test? Yes / No

If so, what was the result? Positive / Negative

Have you had a semen analysis? Yes / No

Where would you hope to perform inseminations?

This is most commonly done in the Surrogate's own home, but could also be in a fertility clinic, or another place that you have agreed with the Surrogate.

How often would you be willing and able to perform inseminations each month?

Please note that 2-3 inseminations per month are recommended, each around 24 hours apart.

How many months of inseminations would you be willing to try?

Please note that a maximum of 6 months is recommended, after which all parties can consider the available options.

Are you prepared to make any necessary lifestyle changes to improve the quality of your sperm? This may include changes to your diet, stopping smoking, reducing the amount of alcohol you drink, and taking vitamin supplements? Yes / No

Would you both plan to attend the inseminations? Yes / No

b) Intended Father 2

Are you considering being the biological father? Yes / No

If No, go to Section 8

Have you had a Cystic Fibrosis carrier test? Yes / No

Have you had a Tay Sachs carrier test (people of Jewish heritage only)? Yes / No / N/a

Have you had a Beta-Thalassaemia carrier test (people of African, Caribbean, Middle-Eastern, and Mediterranean heritage only)? Yes / No / N/a

Have you had a Sickle Cell carrier test (people of African, Caribbean, Middle-Eastern, and Mediterranean heritage only)? Yes / No / N/a

Section 8: Host surrogacy

Please complete the following section if you are considering host surrogacy.

Various options for fathering a child are available for male same-sex couples in host surrogacy. You should consider the following points:

Embryo fertilisation and transfer:

- If you would both consider being the biological father, you can fertilise equal numbers of donor eggs with sperm from each father. Clinics will not transfer embryos from more than one father in each cycle of IVF, so you could take it in turns to use your own embryos on successive cycles until pregnancy is achieved
- Alternatively you may decide that only one of you will be the biological father

Semen analysis:

- Only the father intending to be a biological parent needs to have semen analysis
- Your IVF clinic can perform the semen analysis, or it may be possible to have this organised on the NHS.
- We recommend asking for an additional Mixed Agglutination Reaction (MAR) test on the semen sample

Quarantine:

- A six month quarantine period may be required prior to transferring embryos to your Surrogate. Check with your clinic if you are unsure.

- If you are going to use a quarantine period, the six months can either apply to frozen semen, or frozen embryos.
- In the first case, embryos created using quarantined sperm would be available for use immediately.
- In the second case, the embryos would need to be frozen and could not be used for six months

Sexual health checks:

- If you are only considering host surrogacy, you do not need to have your health tests completed before joining SUK.
- Some clinics will insist that both of you have sexual health tests even if only one of you will be the biological father. Your clinic can arrange these tests, or to save money it may be possible to have them done on the NHS, either via your GP, or via your local sexual health clinic.
- Sexual health tests usually have to be performed both before and after the quarantine period.
- The tests required are listed in the separate “Checklist” at the end of this application.

Section 9: Expectations and preferences for your surrogacy relationship

The questions in this section are intended to make you consider your hopes and expectations for a surrogacy relationship. You don't have to provide definitive answers, and the issues will be discussed in detail during your Membership Advisory Session. Please indicate below if an answer is either something you feel very strongly, or something you remain unsure about.

A pregnant woman's lifestyle choices can affect an unborn child. It can be difficult for Intended Parents to accept that they have little control over the Surrogate's behaviour during this time.

Please indicate whether you would be prepared to work with a Surrogate who:

- Smokes before conception Yes / No / Unsure
- Smokes at all during pregnancy Yes / No / Unsure
- Drinks alcohol before conception Yes / No / Unsure
- Drinks alcohol at all during pregnancy Yes / No / Unsure

During the pregnancy:

Would you expect the Surrogate to have all recommended scans and tests? Yes / No

Would you ask the Surrogate to have any extra scans or blood tests that you would pay for privately? Yes / No

Would you be prepared to work with a Surrogate whose views substantially differ from your own on the above questions? Yes / No

Broadly, are you both in agreement with your answers to the above questions? Yes / No

Please confirm that you will pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the Surrogate in your surrogacy journey. This would also include the costs for any professional counselling that the Surrogate may require in connection to your surrogacy journey Yes / No

Please confirm that you will pay expenses incurred before conception on an ad-hoc basis, and during the pregnancy on a monthly basis, usually between 5-10% per month, with the remainder once the baby is born Yes / No

(Please note that we would not do this without contacting you first) Yes / No
- If the Surrogate is unmarried, will the biological father put his name on the birth certificate? Yes / No
